Gold and Silver in France.

We do not know that there is still anyone who is expecting to realize the sad results which were so freely predicted as certain to follow the passage of the silver bill. Perhaps these delusions still linger; we know that though you bury a fool in a mortar his folly will not depart from him. We all see what has happened here since the first of April. Gold has not diminished but increased in supply, and the stock of both gold and silver in the country steadily increases. So does it in France. For the five months ending with May 31, 1878, the imports of gold, coined and in bars, into France were $29,000,000; the exports were only $3,609,000; so there was an excess of imports over exports of $25,391,000. The imports of silver, coined and in bars, were $15,838,000; the exports were $3,572,000, an excess of $12,266,000.

It is remarkable how steadily this gain of both precious metals has gone on in France; the stocks of both gold and silver continue to augment, and the excess of gold continues to be greater than that of silver. France has about $120,000,000 of silver in the bank, and about $180,000,000 in circulation or hoarded by her people. Of this sum she had received $107,995,000 from other countries within the three years ending with December last. Besides, she has coined during these three years $133,317,000 in gold. In a word, the supply of both metals has been most ample. And silver, as is notorious, has been cheaper than its legal standard. But the gold would not flee away from before the white face of its rival. On the contrary, it insisted on staying and on augmenting itself to the tune of $117,000,000 annually. During the same period England has been coining only $10,113,000 annually in gold, and exporting more gold than she imported. What has been the rule in France will be the rule here also—it is the rule now.—Exchange.

Important Gold Discovery.

OMAHA, August 20.—Telegraphic information received here from Fort Custer, Montana, dated August 18th, brings news of an important gold discovery in the Snow Range or Shoshone mountains, the distance to the discovery being 250 miles from Fort Custer. Wm. G. Hollins, formerly of Omaha but lately of Deadwood, sends this news from Fort Custer, at which post he has just arrived from the discovery, which he locates on the north fork of Stinking Water river, in latitude 44 deg. 30 min., longitude 110 deg. 30 min. The diggings are wonderfully rich. There have been only three men at work in the gulch, and they have taken out over 300 pounds of gold in less than four months, using a hollow log for a sluice-box. It is known as the Whitmore Discovery. The best route is the Union Pacific, thence to Camp Staunbaugh, or Brown. This news has been looked for for some time, as these men were known to have gone thither quietly last spring and the miners have been on the lookout ever since. A grand rush will be the inevitable result.

International Monetary Conference.

PARIS, August 20.—M. Say, in his address at the Monetary Conference yesterday stated that the policy of France was to await a moment when she could revert to the free mintage of silver. The Swiss Representative said that, while agreeing with the present expectant attitude of the Latin Union as described by Ray, Switzerland looked forward to a gold standard as the ultimate solution of the question of coinage. Goschen, of Germany, argued that free mintage of silver will be impossible. The formal rejection of that proposal, however, is out of the question, as the public would consider it a condemnation of the monetary use of silver. The object aimed at should be the maintenance of silver as the companion of gold whenever possible, as the universal disuse of silver would provoke a terrible crisis. He added that an agreement for a universal gold standard might force England to reconsider her policy of maintaining the silver coinage of India intact.

Portland's Last Homicide.

PORTLAND, Or., August 20.—At the coroner's inquest held on the body of Henry McLaughlin, the alleged incendiary, the jury rendered a verdict charging N. G. Hammel with having shot the deceased. The jury also gave it as their opinion that a crime had been committed. Hammel is now in jail, awaiting examination. There seems to be some mystery about the homicide, and the testimony is conflicting. The authorities will make a thorough investigation of the matter.

The International Monetary Conference is in session at Paris.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The First National Bank of Quincy, Illinois, has suspended.

Dennis Kearney telegraphed Chicago that he would speak there on the 20th instant.

James E. Rymal, a prominent young attorney of San Jose, died suddenly yesterday.

Joseph F. Kemminter, of San Francisco, was found drowned near Donahue, Sonoma county, Sunday.

At Augusta, Me., on the 18th, Senator Blaine received painful injuries by being thrown from his carriage.

A water spout on the Colorado desert washed out two and a half miles of track on the Southern Pacific railroad.

The appalling state of affairs in India, occasioned by the recent floods, continues, and relief works are being started in all directions.

According to the Chicago Tribune there were but sixty-eight, by actual count, in the procession which escorted Kearney through the streets of Indianapolis.

A party of capitalists from Indianapolis, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, with Professor Cox, State Geologist of Indiana, are about to leave Los Angeles for the Aztec District, Arizona.

The San Pablo and Tulare railroad is now completed between Martinez and a point on the Western Pacific between Ellis and Butas, and about the first of October the overland trains will run into Oakland by that route.

Instructions have been sent to Carathodori Pasha at Vienna to sign a convention that Austria will agree that occupation shall cease when the Powers declare that the reforms promised by the Porte have been satisfactorily upheld.

John E. Leete, the Potter witness who raised such a disturbance at his hotel in New York several days ago, was brought before the police court for disorderly conduct, but behaved in such an insane manner that he had to be taken from the court room.

Seduced by an Advertisement.

NEW YORK, August 20.—Beatrice Stafford, a young actress, who claims to have played at various theatres in this country and England, saw, on her return from England, an advertisement for a wife, signed "Ruthven." She answered, and received a letter headed "Come and see me." It was dated "Office of T. Potter Wight & Co., Gold and Stock Brokers," and signed "T. P. Wight." Subsequent correspondence followed, and ultimately she succeeded to Thomas Potter Wight's desire that she should live in apartments provided by him, on his promise to marry her. For a time everything went pleasantly, but soon there came the usual result—a demand for money on her part, a quarrel, a separation, and now Miss Stafford has brought suit for $25,000 for breach of promise of marriage. The case came before Judge Van Brunt in the Supreme Court Chambers on Saturday for an order of arrest against Wight, but no order was made. Wight's story will probably be given in a day or two.

A Faithful Girl.

Nine years ago Philip Wareham, of Dayton, O., became engaged in a quarrel, and stabbed and killed his antagonist. For this, after a stubbornly contested trial, he was convicted, and sent to the penitentiary for life. He was engaged to be married at the time to a Miss Williams, of Dayton. The young woman has devoted herself ever since his conviction to an effort to procure his pardon, her efforts running through four gubernatorial terms. At last they were successful, and on Thursday the pardoned convict and his faithful sweetheart were united in marriage.—Chicago Times.

A Merchant's Train Belegued.

CHICAGO, August 20.—Colonel Geo. L. Shupe, of Ida., a merchant trader there, was here to-day to secure from General Sheridan aid for a train valued at $10,000 from which he had information that it had been beleaguered by Indians. His partner, McCaleb, was killed by the savages, and there was, according to his advice, danger that the whole train would be captured and destroyed. General Sheridan was absent, and Shupe has gone to Omaha to seek assistance from General Crook. No lives were lost besides McCaleb's.

Four Men Drowned.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, August 19.—Seven young Swedes went out sailing on the river five miles above here yesterday afternoon, and being poor sailors as well as poor swimmers, they capsized their boat and four of them were drowned.

Trade Dollars 95 Cents.

CINCINNATI, August 20.—The banks of this city to-day refuse to pay over 95 cents for trade dollars, and it is said to-morrow will pay but 90 cents.

Lucky Californians.

This, from the Colusa Sun, is cheerful reading, but we don't guarantee that there is any truth in it: William H. and Wiley E. Brasfield, two brothers, and well-known citizens of Colusa county, are among the heirs to the estate of Robert Edwards, New York. The estate involves nearly fifty acres of ground near Broadway and Canal streets, New York, and is estimated to be worth nearly $150,000,000 and it is said there are 150 heirs to the estate, giving each heir $1,000,000. As we are personally acquainted with the Brasfield brothers, and know them to be exemplary men, we hope they will get the share to which they are entitled.

New Patents.

The Mining and Scientific Press Patent Department has received official notice of the issue of the following patents to Pacific coast inventors, for the week ending August 6th, 1878, viz: George E. Dow, S. F., Cal., steam engines; Horace P. Fletcher, S. F., Cal., ball targets; Eugene Hawkes, San Diego, Cal., pumps; James B. Newland, Sacramento, Cal., wagon jacks; Ambrose Blatchley, Kernville, Cal., wire rope ways; Frank M. Chapin and Joshua Gersbacher, Cuffey's Cove, Cal., vehicle torsion springs. Trademarks—John Prusko, Oakland, Cal., coffees and spices.

The N. Y. Herald says: "While Kearney is stumping East and West in opposition to the almond-eyed celestials, Beaconsfield and the Berlin Congress threaten to overwhelm us with a wholesale visitation of Turkish Israelites, who purpose taking up their residence among us now that they have been granted liberty of life and action. Is not the right of one to come here just as good as the other? Who gave Patrick any stronger claim to protection here than belongs under our constitution and laws to Hang Wong or Solomon Moses?"

EDITORIAL NOTES.

We have not had time lately to look after the Virginia Footlight and as a consequence it is in trouble. That paper, against our well-known wish, has been guilty of a two-column editorial. We have boiled it and find—merely this—that the editor brings in a verdict of justifiable enthusiasm against Kearney. It is shown, and very exhaustively, that S. Adams, J. Hancock, P. Henry, J. Brown Wm. Galileo and J. Bunyan lived and toiled so that a Kearney might be possible. Nine men are accused of "intemperate language," the earthquake shock, the "volcano's fire," and "the coming storm" add strength to the author's riotous English, while the rich oligarchy, knocked down with his own table, lies among the crumbs, smothered with adjectives. This breach of the literary peace is looked upon as the opening bray in Kearney's campaign for the Presidency. The subject is, however, treated lightly—in fact Foot-lightly.

The papers, while giving the State fair society good notices, and displaying a desire to aid a worthy institution, are gaining the impression that Reno is opposed to the races in Carson. We have no objection to Carson succeeding, although we have received no favors or consideration at the hands of Carson. There is no disposition to be unfair, except on the part of the Carson managers. Reno will take her own part and meet the envy of the "Hub" without help. She will not, however, descend to any scheme which would hurt Carson without proper cause. There is no necessity for difference, although the Carson society has tried to take advantage of every trifling. The managers of that institution can therefore push forward as long as they keep on their own ground. If they want a contest, they will not have to beg for it.

What is the matter with these candidates. They don't seem to fight at all but affiliate with the greatest ease. The Eureka Leader says:

We enjoyed a most pleasant visit with the Hon. J. H. Kinkead, who, in company with General Connor, dropped into the Leader office this afternoon. The gentleman is a candidate for gubernatorial honors, and promises to become a most formidable competitor in the race. Should he be so fortunate as to be selected as the standard-bearer of the Republicans in Nevada, he will reflect credit on the party and render the wisdom of their choice apparent. Mr. Kinkead is a gentleman of culture and eminent social qualities, and we shall be pleased to meet him again.

Probably the last sentence which applies equally to Gen. Connor explains the matter.

The San Francisco Chronicle noticed this: "One of the papers published at Austin, Nevada—the Reveille—the day preceding the cloudburst which did considerable damage to the town recently, contained no less than three articles, intended to be facetious, in which the writer expresses a wish, two of them, that a flood would come to cool the heated atmosphere, and the other that a cloud would burst and drown the flies. So prompt an answer to these wicked wishes ought to suggest a text to the preachers."

The Carson Appeal discovers each day some new token of Connor's popularity, and therefore thinks he is the coming man. The Times-Review is also of the opinion that Connor will poll the strength of his party. Every opinion concedes his mental and moral worth as well as his fitness for the position, but there are certain matters of eligibility which, in an undecided form are doing the General much harm.

The Carson Tribune has a candidate of its own. It found him in Lincoln county, and publishes his name as James Hallock. If the wily deacon succeeds he will be State Controller. If it is in order, we should like to know who Hallock may be, and of what particular offense he has been guilty.

There is some little excitement now over the announcement that Mrs. Mackay owns the largest sapphire in the world. It was purchased, says the paste reporter, for 750,000 francs. In the same paper we read that there is much misery and hunger in Paris. The last item does not excite the public at all.

Jacob Haddock, of Warwick, Canada, was instantly killed by lightning on Sunday evening on his way home from church. These warnings should not go unheeded, and it strikes us that the clergy should give the small boy who gets upset and drowned on the Sabbath a rest for a while and attend to such cases as that of Haddock.

The Eureka Leader believes that some men who are named for office are very weak. Also that the politicians know this and encourage the show of weakness because the aspirants can be beaten. The Leader also mentions certain Republicans who say they will get Democratic votes, and vice versa, assuring them that they will find their efforts "love's labor lost."

A San Francisco paper claims that Beecher has stolen a paragraph from Henry Edgerton, much in the same manner as Kearney used Fitch's peroration. The "white-plumed Navarre" of the pulpit will find himself under fire before long, and then we shall see if he is the "fiery Rupert of debate."

It affords us much pleasure to read the original funny stories with which the genius of the Eureka Sentinel enriches the columns of that journal. They recall the sweet days of childhood when we roared over the same new anecdotes in Ayer's Almanac for 1843.

There is a house in Eureka which is "charged with electricity." According to the papers it is a receiver for stolen lightning. If this reprehensible practice becomes general we shall have trouble. "Let no guilty barn escape."

John W. Mackey has been doing the Alps and they haven't felt like themselves since.

SUGGESTION.

The GAZETTE, in working up the case of Louderdale, who jumped or fell from a window at the county hospital, has no doubt suggested some defective points in the management of that establishment. In fact, this has been our object in giving the matter publicity, and we hope that a speedy change may remedy these matters. We therefore recommend that the Commissioners examine the question at their next meeting, with a view to making provision for such cases as that of Louderdale. In its examination of the case the GAZETTE has not found any special instance of official neglect except in overlooking the inquest. We think there should be a padded room at the poor-house, and that the steward should have some authority in such cases, when he finds his own force insufficient. There is also, in our modest opinion, no good reason why such accidents should be kept a profound secret by misrepresentation, while there are some excellent arguments in favor of a coroner's inquest in such cases. The GAZETTE has brought the facts and needs to light—will the Commissioners adjust them?

KINKEAD AND CONNOR.

John H. Kinkead and P. E. Connor are visiting the voters of the Base Range in company. The Sentinel says of them:

These gubernatorial aspirants paid the Sentinel a friendly call yesterday. We have an idea that there is a strong fellow feeling between them. Both being from the Great East, it would not be surprising if they made common cause against the Storey aspirants, particularly as the latter has shown a disposition to count them out in the Comstock primaries. Governor Kinkead is a very affable gentleman, and makes a splendid impression wherever he goes. Indeed, we think there is more latent strength, more outcome in him than any Republican candidate that has yet been named. He is the sort of man who grows with the canvas. It has been quietly whispered, in a confidential way, for some time that if Kinkead should receive the Republican nomination, certain influences would be set to work to keep Governor Bradley off the track. Be that as it may, Governor Kinkead is to be regarded as among the most favorable of the candidates thus far brought forward by the opposition.

There were 129 new cases of yellow fever reported in New Orleans on the 19th, with forty-two deaths. Officers of the Cotton Exchange and Chamber of Commerce of that city have appealed to the Postmaster-General to stop the quarantine law by the cities of adjoining States upon all mail matter from New Orleans, claiming that great loss is resulting to merchants and their correspondents. Twelve more fever nurses have been sent to Grenada, Miss. The scourge is spreading in Memphis.

Bitten by a Dog.

An Indian cur bit a man named Murray in Douglass alley on Sunday last. Mr. Murray howled and grabbed the injured calf. Then he raised his voice loudly and irreligiously. Presently reason ceased to totter on her throne, and got down to business. She suggested swift and bloody vengeance. The lady's suggestion was adopted, and, jerking out his pistol, Mr. Murray shot the dog at the nose. Then the howling and blasphemy was on the other leg, as it might be. The cur scuttled under a house, and Mr. Murray sat down on a rock with his fire-arm cocked and assassination in his eye. Citizens gathered and sat down on contiguous rocks and talked of dogs that they had murdered; and lo, it was found that every man had imbed his hands in canine gore. While the conversation was at its fiercest and bloodiest the wounded pup of the aboriginal sneaked from under the house, and with his tail between his legs, shot down the alley. And Mr. Murray danced in his wrath.

A New Chinatown.

A site for the Chinatown has been found. Homes for the heathen will shortly be erected contiguous to the Chinese gardens this side of the V. & T. bridge. This is hardly as far out of town as could be wished, but the location is infinitely preferable to that swept over by the fire. The Chinamen themselves do not regret the change of locality. They can accumulate all the filth they want without fear of being disturbed, and the rock of the hoodlum will be rarer than of old.

A Valuable Mare Injured.

On Friday last L. S. Burchard left Reno for a visit to Long valley. He was mounted upon J. P. Winfrey's racing mare, which is valued at about $500. Mr. Burchard writes that a severe accident has happened the animal. She has sprained the coffin-joint of her right fore leg. It usually takes a long time to remedy such an injury, and often such a hurt permanently disables a horse.

A Young Thief.

Yesterday the railroad watchman at Lakeview left a boy about fourteen years of age in charge of his cabin, and the lad took the opportunity to steal $18 and a watch and then fled. The youth was foolish enough to board the down train this morning and was nabbed. The watch and $5 50 was found upon him. He was taken back. The boy refused to give his name.

Green Sensationalism.

Reno Journal of today: A man on horseback, chasing a big black cow, was the principal excitement on the streets yesterday.

WASHOE COUNTY STATISTICS.

Some Interesting Figures from Bishop's Directory.

From Bishop's Directory for 1878-9, a work which, by the way, evinces much care and ability in every department, we take the following estimate of Washoe county's products and possessions:

Total taxable property, $3,573,016 50; valuation of town property, $906,678; land under cultivation, 19,000 acres; land enclosed, 36,060 acres; wheat produced on 400 acres, 4,500 bushels; barley produced on 400 acres, 8,600 bushels; oats produced on 750 acres, 13,000 bushels; potatoes produced on 800 acres, 77,000 pounds; onions produced on 3 acres, 455 bushels; cabbage produced on 8 acres, 20 tons; hay produced on 15,600 acres, 30,000 tons; butter, 42,000 pounds; wool, 88,000 pounds; bees, 19 tons; turnips, 26 tons.

Approximate area of agricultural land, 95,000 acres; grazing land, 900,000 acres; timber land, 40,000; mineral land, 10,000 acres.

Crushing Logic.

Two Renosites were having a hot argument in a Commercial row saloon last night. One of them, a teamster, apparently, suddenly and loudly proclaimed that St. Louis was "the biggest city in the world." The other man stopped talking and allowed contempt to accumulate upon his countenance. Then he said very deliberately, weighing each word: "You're—a—damned fool." "Wha—at?" demanded the St. Louis champion belligerently. "A da—amned fool," repeated the other calmly, "and I'll prove it to ye, ye jigit." The anti-St. Louis man held up three fingers and proceeded: "Now there's on'y three kinds a' fools. There's the natural born fool; ye ain't one o' them kind ye?" "No I ain't," growled the teamster. "Then there's the artificial fool that picks up his ignorance as he goes along; ye ain't one o' them kind, be ye?" "No I ain't." Well, on'y one o' my fingers is left standin' and that represents the damned fool an' if ye ain't one I never see the animal in my life." The teamster seemed to be crushed by this logic, but muttered something about "a fellow had ought to know the biggest city in the world when he'd been there himself and seen it."

Workingmen's County Ticket.

The leaders of the Workingmen's party held a meeting last evening to discuss the situation. The fact that both the Republican and Democratic Central Committees have adopted tests that will prevent the Workingmen voting at the primaries, has caused a good deal of bitter feeling. The proposition to put a straight county ticket in the field met with considerable opposition, some holding that such a step would give the Republicans a walkover. Others believing that the Workingmen could elect their ticket. The latter was the opinion of the majority present and it was decided that a straight Workingmen's ticket should be put up.

A Four-Legged Fraud.

J. C. Hagerman has a dog that knows enough to run for office, and would make a first-class poker player. "Watch" is a shameless bluffer. When a strange dog passes Watch rushes out of the store with ferocious growlings. If the strange dog is scared and runs, Watch will keep after him in murderous style; if, however, the other fellow makes a stand, Watch goes by him with a very preoccupied air, picks up a stick and returns with it to the store, as if that had been the sole object of his mad rush.

Drowned.

The body of an old man known as "Yank" was found in Donner lake yesterday. "Yank" was a fisherman by occupation, a native of Vermont, and had lived for some time at Boca. He was a confirmed recluse, and was only remarkable for his miserly habits. Many rumors are now flying around concerning a large sum of money which he is supposed to have buried in some of his old haunts. Nothing has been learned as to the circumstances of his death.

JOTTINGS.

—J. E. Jones is in from Pyramid.
—George Becker keeps Budweiser.
—The weather is delightfully cool.
—J. D. Hammond, presiding elder, is at the Depot hotel.

—The emigrant cars going west are well filled with hopeful passengers.
—As the GAZETTE goes to press the sky is overcast and there is a chance for a shower.

—Louis Dean is running a threshing machine. That is, he runs to town after the oil.

—Joe Whitehead is in town with a load of his celebrated two-story potatoes from Pyramid.

—J. E. Fitch has lost a pocket book which is of no value to the finder. Return to this office.

—Reno is the most vitriol town of its size on the coast. The arrests hardly average one per week.

—The lumber for the pavilion, supplied by Bragg & Co., is arriving and being placed on the ground.

—There is a general complaint that the candidates are very backward this season in setting 'em up for the boys.

—R. P. Chapin, confined to the house by reason of one of his knees being out of kilter, is rapidly recovering.

—The hopeful heathen still scrapes among the a-hes and cinders of Chinatown and scroops in the succulent nail and gaudy iron hoop.

—The Thomas Jamison party has returned from their camping tour to Meadow, Webber, Wood and Independence lakes.

—The Democrats have changed the time for their primaries and convention. Primaries, September 19th; convention, October 1st.

—Major Mann now runs the Clerk's office in solitude. Complains of lack of legal business, does the Major, and chafes at the weather. Mr. Comstock is rustinating.

—Advanced Chinamen walk into the beer saloons and order their quart of Boca just like Christians. They are not over welcome to the other guzzlers, however.

—L. D. Wicks, the wood sharp, Mayor of Bronco, and also postmaster thereof, was in town yesterday. Mr. W. will be a good man to know when the cold spell arrives.

—A quantity of new silver dollars made from Jones & Kinkead bullion, arrived from Carson to-day. These are the first fruit of the kind that the J. & K. tree has borne.

—The case of I. B. Marshall vs. Golden Fleece Mining Co., T. K. Hymers et al., will soon come to an end. The argument is now progressing before T. E. Haydon, referee.

—The luxurious small boy builds a bonfire on the bank when he takes an evening plunge into the Truckee wherewith to warm his slim shanks when he emerges.

—Tramps continue scarce in this warlike town. It is made awfully uncomfortable for the few who do happen along and who can't give a straight account of themselves.

—The stone foundation of the Pavilion is being laid rapidly. It will be half finished this evening. Mr. Beck is personally superintending all the work being done on the ground.

—"Canty" was last heard from at Jamison City. If this meets his eye, he learns that the officers are all busy electioneering. It is unnecessary for us to tell him the terms of subscription to this paper.

—A GAZETTE reporter to-day gave a remarkable example of self-sacrifice. He was just hunting and cursing for items when as he was passing along Sierra street a team attached to a large wagon started to run away. The good reporter stopped them.

—It is highly necessary that the candidates should change their mode of life. The idea of some twenty men having declared themselves for political preferment, and yet there is nothing exciting in town. No rows, fights, petty larceny or other fashionable amusements are reported. We give notice that unless this town becomes more entertaining we shall dig up that wild man of Pyramid and run him again.

The Roos-Janes Battle.

Roos, the Virginia clothier, states through the Comstock papers that the GAZETTE's account of his trouble with Prof. Janes, at the Depot hotel in this town, contained many false statements. Roos asserts that so far from Janes bullying him he was "quite timid" in his manner toward him. The Professor was so very timid before the terrible tailor that the officers who were present say that he heaped all sorts of abuse upon him, and, but for their active interference, would have given Ross a thrashing. The GAZETTE account of the affair was obtained from eye-witnesses who, not being in danger of a hiding, were neither scared nor excited, and therefore have probably a better recollection of what occurred than has Roos.

Our Old Scalp.

Charley E. Davis is over at Eureka and is showing what he claims to be the scalp of a hostile Indian whom he shot in Montana. We know that old scalp. It belonged to us. We took it from the skull of a delinquent subscriber and gave it to Charley when he was over here last Summer.

An Unprovoked Outrage.

This afternoon an old man fully 75 years of age was sitting in front of a saloon on Commercial Row, when a drunken ruffian named Thomas Pastor, walked up to him and called him an obnoxious name. The old gentleman very naturally objected to such strong language, especially as it came from an entire stranger. Pastor announced that by blank he had just come down from Virginia and proposed to run the village of Reno to suit himself, and to prove that he wasn't afraid to do it, started in by giving to the amazed old man's nose a frightful tweak which nearly wrenched him out of his chair. Then Pastor banged his hat over his eyes and yelled that he was going to mop the sidewalk with him. He was seized, however, and taken before Judge Richardson, who sent the cowardly brute to jail for twelve days. It must make Pastor mad to be deprived of his liberty just as he had found a man he could lick.

Idle Talk.

If the Reno folks expect to play pranks relative to the charge of bringing fast stock to Carson, they will find their matches among the managers of the Ormsby County Agricultural Society. So says the Directors and Secretary.—Tribune.

If Carson will show as much consideration for Reno as our managers feel for the Ormsby Jockey Club, all will be well. If the Directors and mighty Secretary think differently let them start the opposition. We are busy just now building a pavilion.

The "Portfolio."

This little local paper, gotten up by the boys of our town, was laid on the Tribune office desk this morning. Go ahead, boys; it's far more useful and respectable to spend your spare time in learning to become printers than loafing on street corners.—Carson Tribune.

That's just where you're dead off.

Doughty Young Dickens.

To-day the wife of W. H. Dickens presented him with a son. The young man weighs over twelve pounds and expressed a desire to go out camping. If we were in Dickens' place, we'd put him to work in the store. A big loafer like that has no right to spend all his time in bed.

For Recorder and Auditor.

John B. Williams announces himself as a candidate for the position of Recorder and Auditor, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention. Mr. Williams has held the position for two terms and has made a competent and faithful officer.

SIMMOND'S NABOB WHISKY.

A GREAT REMEDY.

SIMMOND'S

NABOB

WHISKY.

—FOR—

Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Nervousness.

The Purest and Best

—FOR ALL—

Medicinal and Family Purposes.

HAS BEEN SOLD IN ALL THE EASTERN STATES AND GIVEN UNIVERSAL satisfaction. It is highly recommended by the Faculty for all cases of Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc. It is now introduced to the public of the Pacific Slope, endorsed by certificates of the eminent DR. J. HAYES, State Assayer of Massachusetts, and DR. H. C. LOUDERBACK of St. Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their profession, and which is a guaranty to all buyers of its purity and quality.

I can show thousands of letters from private persons, from all parts of the Union and Canada, testifying to its merits and the benefit it has afforded, as a family remedy and tonic. Dyspepsia is called the national disease of this country, and many reasons why have been given. It is frequently said that people work too much, eat too fast, sleep too little, tax the powers of nerve and brain too incessantly, drink too much ice water, eat too much hot bread, smoke too much tobacco, give way to too much excitement, and consequently play themselves out in the shortest possible time. "A short life and a merry one" seems to be the sentiment that chiefly influences a large number of persons, but for all that no person feels at ease when suffering in health. Now, however, much or little truth should be attached to the opinion of physicians who charge the great prevalence of dyspepsia and nervousness to any of the causes mentioned, it cannot be denied that there are some applications received by druggists throughout the country for medicines to relieve and cure stomach and nervous pains and disorders, and all other maladies that afflict human life. As might be expected under the circumstances, a large number of specific to successfully counteract these diseases have been introduced to the attention of the public, but nearly all of them have failed to do any good. Whenever, therefore, any alleged new remedial agent is spoken of, very little confidence is felt in it by reason of numerous past disappointments, so that people who are chronic sufferers from dyspepsia, indigestion, physical weakness, or nervousness almost despair of being cured. They, however, take too despondent a view of the matter, for those who have used the celebrated NABOB WHISKY, which can be had from all respectable druggists and grocers, know by experience that it is a sure remedy for all the maladies referred to, and that its tonic properties are of the most strengthening character. Many persons who found it impossible to properly digest a single meal, and whose physique had been sadly attenuated, have derived immediate benefit from the NABOB WHISKY, and in a short time, by its regular use, regained all their health and strength. It can be taken with impunity, as no drugs are incorporated with it, and its healthy action on the human system is at once felt. The effect which it produces on the organs of the stomach is such as to create a vigorous appetite and render digestion easy, no matter what the habits of the sufferer may be, and it at the same time steadies the nerves and stimulates the brain. There are no fictitious claims for the great remedial agent, so that all persons who are troubled with dyspepsia or nervousness would be false to themselves if they failed to test its curative qualities. Its sale is rapidly on the increase, and the better it is known the more it is used.

CAUTION—None genuine unless labeled with my signature over the cork.
